

Beautiful Louis 13th-style fireplace with trumeau

Opulent and elegant, this fireplace is inspired by the Louis 13 style (17th Century). It is carved in a natural limestone called "Estailaldes" and includes 2 large cubic feet, straight and slender jambs decorated with a large moulding that continues on the lower part of the lintel, surrounding the hearth, 2 finely indented cornices, and a pier hand carved with floral decoration.
